

Spring Meetings Event on the Safeguards Review and Update
Preliminary Report Out on Phase I of the Safeguards Review Consultations
April 20, 2013, 9 a.m. – 12 p.m. (J-B1-080)

PROPOSED AGENDA

Please join members of the Safeguards Review and Update team to discuss what they have been hearing through the course of the first phase of the consultation process. The team has consulted with wide range of external stakeholders in more than 30 countries and has received extensive and valuable input. The Safeguards Review Team members will be joined by some of the experts who have participated in the emerging areas expert focus group meetings. These include meetings on: land tenure and natural resources management; free, prior, and informed consent of Indigenous Peoples; labor and occupational health and safety; disability; climate change; human rights; and gender.

World Bank participants include:

- Paul Bermingham, Director, Operational Risk Management (OPSOR)
- Motoko Aizawa, Advisor to the Sustainable Development Network
- Stephen Lintner, Senior Technical Advisor, Operational Risk Management (OPSOR)
- Charles di Leva, Chief Counsel, Environmental and International Law (LEGEN)
- Colin Scott, Lead Social Development Specialist, Operational Risk Management (OPSOR)

Kyle Peters, Vice President, Operations Policy and Country Services, will provide opening remarks. Sumir Lal, External Affairs, will emcee the meeting, and Richard Burrett, Cambridge University Programme for Sustainability Leadership will facilitate the session on emerging issues.

THE ENTIRE EVENT WILL BE WEBCAST LIVE

Interpretation services will be available in Arabic, French and Spanish
